Dr. Fumi Stephanie Hancock

RE: SPECIAL NAFCA LITERARY ARTS AWARD (HOLLYWOOD 2015)

Dear Dr. Hancock,

I am writing today to inform you that you have been selected as one of the highly suitable individuals who in many ways meet the challenging requirements and expectations for the NAFCA Honors. Dr. Hancock your ambitions, intelligence, and accomplishments complement precisely the stellar community of past recipients and make you highly deserving of the Special NAFCA Literary Arts Award and opportunity bestowed by the NAFCA Honors.

As the president and CEO of the African NAFCA, I would also like to take this opportunity to let you know that our organisation has followed your career and I am hopeful that you would allow us to honor your work, the accomplishments you have made for the betterment of humanity through your work

The NAFCA Honors are awards organized and overseen by the Nollywood Film Critics USA, given annually to recognize outstanding individuals whose lives have been marked by extraordinary personal and professional accomplishments. The NAFCA Humanitarian award recognizes individuals for their outstanding achievements and contribution to humanity.

Honorees are awarded the NAFCA Trophies, officially the Award of Merit that is much better known by its nickname NAFCA. The NAFCA Special Honors were presented for the first time in 2011 to President Nelson Mandela. Recipients of this prestigious award in subsequent years include His Imperial Majesty Kabiyesi Alaiyeluwa Oba Okunade Sijuwade Olubuse II The Ooni of Ife, President Jonathan Goodluck, President Yahya Jammeh of The Gambia,
